NMSU is a comprehensive land-grant institution dedicated to teaching, research and service. We are classified as a Hispanic-serving institution by the U.S. Department of Education and are a member of the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities. NMSU Las Cruces has an enrollment of more than 18,000 students from 49 states and 78 foreign countries. Minority students account for more than 47 percent of the student population.

NMSU is classified as a comprehensive Doctoral/Research University (high research activity) by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. NMSU's total sponsored program expenditures exceeded $211 million in FY 2009-2010. NMSU anchors the southern end of New Mexico's Rio Grande Research Corridor and is home to the Clinton P. Anderson Physical Science Laboratory.

NMSU has been accredited since 1926 by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.
